The Afternoon Session Taken Up With Hearing the Report of the Committee of Conference _ The Committee En dorsed the Reunion of This Assembly With the Southern Assembly.

Philadelphia. May 26.—The first thing the Aesembly did yesterday morning was to vote to meet next year in the Fourth avenue Presbyterian Church, New York. Then Dr. McCosh presented the report of the Judicial Committee and recommendations were approved until was reached the appeal of Judge Churles T. Drake against the Synod of Baltimore in the case of Rev. Geo. O. Little, in which the Synod had refused to condemn responsive reading of the Scriptures in public worship. The Judicial Committee recommended that the appeal be not sustained on the ground that the General Assembly of 1878 had passed upon the matter by declaring that it was not prepared to recommend to the session that responsive reading was a subject for discipline.

Judge Drake, the appellant, was given permission to speak, and he took issue with the report of the committee, who, he claimed, had exciteded their powers in giving an opinion on the case. Their only business was to report to the General Assembly upon the orderly character of the Appeal. The merits of the appeal were for the consideration of a Judicial Commission, or for the General Assembly theelf.

On Dr. Dr. Crosby's motion the case was PHILADELPHIA, May 26.—The first thing

On Dr. Dr. Crosby's motion the case was referred back to the committee with in-structions to report upon the orderly char-acter of the appeal.

This will bring the whole matter of responsive reading before the General Assembly.

A cordial response was read and ordered to be sent to the salutation of the conference of the Protestant Episcopal Diocese of Pennsylvania.

A recess until 2:30 was then taken.

The afternoon session of the General Assembly was taken up in hearing the report of the committee of conference. This report from the committee of conference with a like committee of the Southern Assembly, on the question of the union of the two assemblies, recommended that the Assembly endorse the views of the committee as expressed in a letter to the committee of the Southern Church. That communication addressed to Rev. J. B. Strickler, D.D., tion addressed to Rev. J. R. Strickler, D.D., chairman of the Southern committee, set forth: Touching our doctrine of the spirituality of our church. Our committee beg leave to say that we do not conceive it to be any part of the duty with which we are charged, to sit in judgment upon the consistency of our church with liself, at different periods of its history; or to institute any comparison with a view to this end, between the earlier and later deliverances of its successive assemblies; but end, between the earlier and later deliverances of its successive assemblies; but rather to represent the present attitude of our church toward certain issues which are regarded as pending between the bodies which we respectively represent. Our reunited assembly has no other doctrine on the whole subject involved in this question than quoted in the Omaha papers referred to by you, to wit: Synds or councils are to handle or conclude nothing but that which is ecclesiastical; and are not to meddle with civil affairs which concern the commonwealth, itniess by way of not to meddle with civil sffairs which con-cern the commonwealth, unless by way of humble petition in cases extraordinary, or by way of advice for the satisfaction of conscience, if they be therunto required by the civil magistrate."

As to the relations of the colored people in the South to the church: Our church is no in favor of setting of its colored mem-bers into a separate, independent organiza-tion. We believe that we have a great work to do among the colored people for bers into a separate, independent organization. We believe that we have a great work to do among the colored people for their own salvation and for the good of the country; and that this is to be done by recognizing those who are in the church as entitled to all the rights and privileges that are involved in church membership and ordination. We believe, too, that the great work among them can only be fully done by our church's reunited as one, and this one strong motive prompting us in our desire for reunion. We are of the opinion that our assembly will agree to a basis of organic union, by which the present boundaries and constituencies of Presbyteries and synods in the South shall remain in statu quo, to be changed only with the consent of the parties interested; and that all new churches and me Presbyteries hereafter estatures. churches and new Presbyteries bereafter es tablished shall be organized by, and re-ceived into connection with Presbyteries and synods respectively, as the interested parties may mutually agree.

After alluding to the powers vested in After alluding to the powers vested in ards of the church the committee states: As to your fourth inquiry, concerning the existence of heresy in the church: our answer is given only with a view to enable your committee to correct the misapprehencion, which you say exist in your church on this subject, in order that you may lay the facts before your assembly. We answer emphatically in the negative. In respect to this subject of doctrine in its various aspects we say that so far as our knowledge goes (and itembraces the records of all our judicatories) there is no question of doctrine or of policy agitating any part of our church. The reunion of 1869 was effected on the basis of the standards without condition. And we believe that the subscription to the standards on the part of and without reservation.

In conclusion permit us to express the hope that our conference, thus far, may have disclosed such substantial unity of belief and practice between our two assemblies as will induce your assembly to continue and enlarge the powers of your committee, for the purpose of full conference on the subject of organic re-union with a similar committee of our General Assembly. We wish frankly to aid that, while our church is heartily in favor of organic re-union with yours, we do not believe that such re-union is desirable, or could ever be effective in the great work of the Master, unless it be consumated with the fullest confidence in the Christian character and doctrinal soundness of each other upon terms of perfect equality and reciprocity, with an earnest and sincere desire to maintain the unity of the church and our common faith and on the basis of a candid and sincere acceptance our common standards. belief and practice between our two assem sincere acceptance our common standards.

THE NATIONAL CONGRESS

TIME TALKING.

Washington, D. C., May 26.—The House passed the day yesterday in discussing unimportant amendments Legislative, Executive and Judicial appropriation bill. Private business was set aside and the House in Committee of the Whole resumed consideration of the Legislative, Executive and Judicial appropriation bill. The bill was read by paragraphs for amendment.

Mr. J. D. Taylor, of Ohio, offered an amendment increasing the salary of the chaplain of the House from $500 to $1,200, which created some discussion of a bantering character relative to the amount of prayer necessary for the well being of a Democratic House. The amendment was rejected.

An amendment by Mr. Wheeler looking to an increase in the salary of the assistant called back or not, but there are indications of foreign realizing in some securities. The cheapening of money in this market by treasury disbursements for bonds has made the outgo larger, and the Secretary states that the price paid will not be advanced at present. Merchandise exports from New York for three weeks past fail 1.2 per cent. below last year, while imports decline about 6 per cent. so that the excess of imports for May seems likely to be not much below last year's and in April that excess was nearly $11,000,000. Partly in settlement for bonds previously offered, the Treasury during the past week has paid out $3,700,000 more than it has taken in and money here is abundant and cheap, with moderate sums arriving from the Interior. The volume of trade is almost universally unsatisfactory

An amendment by Mr. Wheeler looking to an increase in the salary of the assistant journal clerk, was ruled out on a point of order. Severy hours of dreary discussion on trivial amendments ensued.

Mr. Cobb, of Alabama, opposed the entire appropriation for the Botonical Garden. He said that when he first came to Congress he had said to an old member that he would vote to abolish the Garden.

This member—an economic and reform This member—an economic and reform Democrat too—told him that if he did, he would be a "damed fool." (Laughter.) He had then asked what was the use of it, and the reply was that one of the uses was that favored members could procure flowers there. His informant could not tell where the flowers went, but knew that they did not go to the members' wives.

(Laughter.)
Mr. McComas, of Maryland, offered an amendment increasing the clearical force of the Civil Service Commission.
This led to a debate on Civil Service reform. The President was attacked for making many removals.

Mr. Hopkins, of Illinois, asserted, and it has taken in and money here is abundant and cheap, with moderate sums arriving from the Interior. The volume of trade is almost universally unsatisfactory but the unfavorable weather is in most cases accepted as the chief cause and some improvement is reported at Gleveland and Memphis. In Oregon and South Carolina, exceptional reports represent trade better than that of last year, generally a decrease is noted with prevailing hesitation. The volume of exchanges 83, per cent. below last year's outside of New York, shows an increase at Chicago, Omaha, Kansas Citv New Orleans and San Francisco, but the de crease at Boston is 20 per cent., at Sinchinati 13, at Baltimore 9, at 8t. Louis and Denver 8, and at Pittsburg and Detroit 7 per cent. At New York, a usual of late, the decrease is considerable, but largely due to speculative changes. The tendency of prices has been downward both for securities and for products. The average for products was temporarily lifted by the speculation in grain but has fallen again to a point five per cent, below the highest for the year. Wheat has declined three cents with more favorable crop prospects and sales of 53,000,000 bushels here; corn has fallen 2½ cents for the week and oate 1 cent. Hogs and lard have advanced 15 cents per 100 pounds, and coffee half a cent, but cotton and sugar do not gain and oil is 3½ cents lower than a week ago. The decline in wool since May the first has averaged 30 cents per 100 pounds. Rubber is weaker at 71 cents for new para-Hides continue very dull and leather generally favors buyers, though the movement of sole leather has been large this month. They asserted that if they ever came into power, that they would end that thing and declared that it was to the interest of there public that it should end.

After further belate, and pending a vote upon Mr. McComas' amendment the committee rose.

Senate bills were passed appropriating $75,000 for a public building at Tallapoosa, Fla., and increasing by $50,000 the appropriation for a public building at Sacramento, Cal. The House at $0 clock took a recess until 8 p. m., the evening session to grades of sheetings and the demand for staples presses close upon the supply. In woolens, there is better feeling rather than actual improvement. The distributive movement in groceries has increased and holders are more confident. It is to be noticed, however, that, in New York wholesale trades there is rather more complaint of tardiness in collections, and the increase in the number of failures—777 thus far in May in the United States, against 593 for the same week last year, indicates hills.

A Republican caucus was called for to-day after adjournment, and a Democratic caucus for this evening at 8 o'clock.

The stock market has been depressed about $1 per share by gold exports and by liquidations in some prominent stocks, but a vigorous rally began Friday morning. Among the bills reported from committees were those appropriating $50,000 for a public building at Staunton, Va.; $100,000 for one at Newport News, Va.; authorizing the Richmond & Danville Railroad Company to lay tracks in the District of Columbia; also the bill amendatory of existing law looking to the better protection of girls in the District of Columbia. ATLANTA, Ga., May 20.—A few weeks ago a man of mysterious manner and appearance located in Green county. He called himself "Abbidigal," or "Holy One," claimed to possess a divine nature, and said he had received instruction by divine revelation to free the negroes of Georgia from the bondage of false religion. He gained the confidence of the colored people, and deluded them into believing that he was their colored savior. He had many followers, hundreds coming from the adjoining counties and villages to listen to his strange doctrines. He held services in fields and groves and adorned himself on these occasions with gaudy turbans and flowing robes. He had craaments that he sold readily as shields against the power of Satan, and in this way was reaping a financial harvest. He was regarded by the white people as a harmless crank, and little attention was given him until it was discovered that he was a thief and an impostor.

and little attention was given him until it was discovered that he was a thief and an impostor.

The stranger secretly informed the negroes that there was a "Land of Promise" which he had recently discovered. It was, he said, a place prepared for negroes where they had neither to work nor starve—a paradise which was to be the home of all who followed him. He bade them steal or sell all they had and put the money into his keeping and on a certain night they would meet and together start on their journey. A dozen families sold their cabins, crops, mules and all they possessed and put the money in the hands of "Abbidigal." The swindler appointed the place for meeting at an isolated spot and the time for starting on the journey was two nights ago, when a band of about forty men, women and children congregated and waited in vain for the coming of "Abbidigal."

In the meantime it was ascertained that the "Holy One" was several miles distant in an opposite direction, making his way across the country. When the pigrims realized that they had been deceived and robbed, they pursued "Abbidigal," caught him, hung him to a tree, and the exasperated mob lashed his nude body with brier reeds until they believed him dead, when they left him. He was found some time later by white people and cared for, but can not recover. He is a white man, but had stained his face, hands and hair so as to pass for a negro. to pass for a negro.

After the Return of Delegates from Philadelphia.

Baltimore, May 26.—The convention of Southern Presbyterians met at three o'clock yesterday afternoon, after the return of the delegates from Philadelphia. In the absence of Moderator Ballock, who conducted the funeral ceremonies of a friend, Rev. Jacob Henry Smith, of North Carolina, presided. Dr. Strickler called attention to the fact that the convention was to vote upon the CINCINNATI, May 26.—Officer Horner did a very brave thing last night. He was patroling his beat along flace, below Fourth, when he saw four men leap from the shadow of an alley and jump on a fifth, who was walking along the street. Drawing his revolver, he ran to the relief of him who had been knocked down. The highwaymen, frightened by the approach of an officer, started to run. At the corner of Fifth and flace the officer caught up with them, and held them at the point of the pistol until a patrol wagon arrived. The man who was held up was named O'Connor. He lost nothing.

CUBANS TORTURED.

Morrible Atracities Inflicted on Govern ment Prisoners.

Havana, Cura, May 26.—The press and the people are talking only of the revelations as to the cruel treatment of pressers now confined in the Cabanas Fort for complicity in the kidnapping case. Seventy prisoners are under arrest and four of them have made sworn statements.

Santiago Montero was arrested while at work. He was questioned. His story was not believed, and a Colonel and two Guardias Civils tortured him. They put his fingers in a guage and screwed them up, each turn crushing the bones. They beat him unmercifully, too, and he may die.

Antonio Molerio was arrested on the Morales estate by Teniento Saiuz. He was beaten and for forty hours had no food. Saiuz told him that if he would swear that the Mayor and three Alderman of Madenga were implicated in the kidnapping of Senor Alentado he would set him free. Molerio refused.

Alentado he would set him free. Molerio refused.

Florencio Diax Belancourt was arrested by Saiuz. He was beaten till he fainted When he recovered consciousness his fingers, broken and crushed, were in a vise. He cried like a child. Then the soldiers kicked him in the stomach. He was first asked to swear that Fernando Mena, on whose estate he worked, had had a hand in the kidnapping of Antonio Gelindezand refused to do so. Both his hands will have to be amputated.

The exposures have aroused the people. Protests have been sent to Madrid. The press calls on Captain General Marien to take steps in the matter at once. If Sainz were caught on the street there might be a lynching.

A BRUTE FLOGGED. Negro Taken From Jail and Soundly

A Negro Taken From Jail and Soundly Thrashed by a Mob.

Barnsville, O., May 26.—The fever of excitement occasioned by the arrest of Robert Gibson, the negro charged with assaulting a little white girl, culminated in a crowd of undisquised citizens overpowering the guard at the lockup; the iron bars were battered down and Gibson was taken out among the deafening shouts of the mob and escorted to the outskirts of the town. The mob took Gibson to a field a short distance west of town, where his fate was put to vote. The proposition to hang him was voted down. It was then proposed to emasculate him, but this failed to carry, when the one to give him a flogging was decided upon. The wretch was then stripped and given an unmerciful beating after which he was excerted back to town and turned over to the authorities. Great excitement prevails. Gibson wäived examination and was taken to the county jail yesterday evening.

amination and was taken to the county jail yesterday evening.

Excitement is again high over the arrest yesterday of Minor Gibson, a brother of Bob, on the charge of theft and exposure of his person to ladies. He is an ex-Penitentiary bird and a low character. It seems probable that there is severe punishment in store for this last offender, judging from the tone of an inceased community.
